

Kwinana Early Years Services Incorporated
Strengthening and Supporting Families

KEYS to Family Support

Is a FREE service for parents and/or carers living within the Kwinana and Rockingham communities with children aged between 0 - 12 years.

Services can be provided at our Kwinana office, or another agreed location.

KEYS Family Support Workers have recognised qualifications in Community Services and Development.

The Family Support Workers work from a non-judgemental, strength based perspective to help you achieve your goals.

The initial meeting focuses on what your goals are and making a plan to achieve them.

Family Support Workers are available to assist with:

- ◆ Home-based, on-site case management for family assistance
- ◆ Developing and enhancing family relationships
- ◆ Enhancing social and life skills
- ◆ Family support around child behaviour
- ◆ Empowering families to achieve positive life outcomes
- ◆ Information and referral pathways to appropriate services including other KEYS programs such as: supported playgroups, counselling, parenting workshops and the Parents as Teachers program
- ◆ Families experiencing domestic violence/ homelessness and financial problems
- ◆ Transport assistance with prior arrangement

KEYS welcome Aboriginal families, families from other cultural backgrounds and grandparents raising their grandchildren.

The Family Support Worker is bound by an 'Oath of Confidentiality' in relation to family support sessions. However, where there is a threat or risk to an individual's safety, confidentiality may be waived.
